

would the real stump please stand up

Isaiah 9.8-39.8

1. (28th July)	Isaiah 9.8-12.6	"looking for a stump"	(1.1-1.6)
2. (4th Aug)	Isaiah 13.1-23.18	"will you repent?"	(22.1-1.3)
3. (11th Aug)	Isaiah 24.1-27.13	"death swallowed up"	(25.1-1.2)
4. (18th Aug)	Isaiah 28.1-33.1	"a righteous king"	(32.1-2.0)
5. (25th Aug)	Isaiah 33.2-35.10	"God will come"	(35.1-1.0)
6. (1st Sept)	Isaiah 36.1-39.8	"has the stump failed?"	(39.1-8)

Isaiah 24.1-27.13

"death swallowed up"

BEFORE THE STUDY

Read Isaiah 24.1-27.13

1. What sin can you see described in this section?
2. What is the judgement promised in these sections?
3. How can you see God's plan to save his people promised?

DURING THE STUDY

Read Isaiah 24.1-24

1. What is the judgment and hope that you see in this chapter?

2. Do you think that these two things are incompatible? why? why not?

Read Isaiah 25.6-9

3. What are the echoes of Jesus here?

4. How does this help us to understand the tension between judgment and mercy?

Read Isaiah 26.1-10 and Isaiah 27.12-13

5. How do God's people respond in these verses?

6. How can you imitate them?

7. Read 1 Corinthians 15.50-58 How does Jesus fulfil the hopes and promises of this section in Isaiah?